

1. Base-class constructors are not inherited by derived classes.
A: True.
2. An is-a relationship is implemented via composition.
A: False.
Is-a relationship is inherited.
3. A Student class has an is-a relationship with the Faculty and Course classes.
A: False.
Faculty and Course are not inherited by Student
4. Private members of a private base class are inaccessible to the derived class.
A: True.
5. A base class's protected members can be accessed in the base-class definition, in derived-class definitions and in friends of the base class and its derived classes.
A: True.

